(5) Where any officer of the public service or officer or servant of the Local Government Service or of any local authority is temporarily appointed to the staff of the Institute, he shall be subject to the same disciplinary control as any other member of such staff.

(6) The employment to the staff of the Institute of any person appointed under this section shall not be terminated except with the prior approval in writing of the President.

PART V

INSTITUTE OF FUNDAMENTAL STUDIES PROVIDENT FUND

Institute of Fundamental Studies
Provident
Fund.

25. The Board shall establish a fund to be called and known as the Institute of Fundamental Studies Provident Fund (hereinafter referred to as the "Provident Fund").

Rules for regulation of Provident
Fund.

26. The Board may make rules for the regulation, administration and management of the Provident Fund and for all matters incidental to or connected with the Provident Fund.

Contributions to the Provident
Fund.

27. (1) Every Professor, Member, Fellow, officer and servant employed by the Institute, shall from the date of his employment, contribute to the Provident Fund, by means of equal monthly deductions from his salary, an amount equal to ten per centum of his earnings, and the Institute shall, in addition, at the same time contribute to the Fund in respect of every contributor, a sum equal to fifteen per centum of the earnings of that contributor or such other sum as the Board may determine.

(2) The Secretary shall open and keep a general account for the Provident Fund and a separate account in respect of each contributor to that Fund. All contributions made by a contributor to the Provident Fund and all contributions made by the Institute to the Fund in respect of that contributor shall be placed to the credit of the account of that contributor in the Fund.

(3) The amount lying to the credit of the account of a contributor shall, subject to the provisions of any rule made by the Board in that behalf, accumulate at compound interest at a rate to be fixed by the Board in consultation with the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance, until the day on which that contributor ceases to be a contributor in accordance with the rules of the Institute, and the account of that contributor shall be closed on that day. Where the accumulated sum lying to the credit of a contributor is not paid within a period of three months from the date the account was closed, interest at the same rate as provided in this section shall be paid up to the last day of the month preceding that in which the full amount lying to his credit is paid :

Provided that interest accruing after the date on which his account is closed shall not be paid where the delay in the payment of such amount to such contributor was due to any fault of the contributor.

28. (1) The amount payable to any contributor as provided in section 27(3), shall, subject to the provisions of section 29, be paid to him by the Secretary.

Repayment to contributors.

(2) Where a contributor ceases to be employed by the Institute prior to the date on which he ceases to be a contributor under section 27(3) either on account of ill health or incapacity or on account of the abolition of the post in which he is employed, or voluntarily retires from the service of the Institute, the Secretary shall, subject to the provisions of section 29, pay to that contributor the full amount which has accumulated to the credit of his account in the Provident Fund at the date on which he so ceased to be employed.

(3) Where a contributor is dismissed from the service of the Institute prior to the date on which he ceases to be a contributor under section 27(3), the Secretary shall, subject to the provisions of section 29, pay to that contributor the amount contributed by him to the Provident Fund, together with the accumulated interest thereon up to the date of his dismissal.

(4) Where a contributor dies while in the service of the Institute, the Secretary shall, subject to the provisions of section 29, pay the full amount which has accumulated to the credit of the account of that contributor in the Provident Fund to the estate of the deceased contributor or to the person lawfully entitled to such amount.

29. Notwithstanding anything in the preceding provisions of this Part and without prejudice to any other right or remedy, the amount of any loss or damage sustained by the Institute, by reason of the dishonesty or negligence of a contributor at any time during the period of his employment by the Institute, shall be a first charge upon the amount lying to the credit of the account of that contributor in the Provident Fund; and such amount may be deducted at the time any payment is made in accordance with the provisions of section 28.

Deductions from Provident Fund first charge.

Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund in addition to or as alternate to the Provident Fund.

30. The Board may, in consultation with the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance, establish a pension scheme and a Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund as an alternative, or in addition, to the Provident Fund established under this Part. Rules may be made by the Board for the regulation, administration and management of such pension scheme and such Widows' and Orphans' Pension Fund.

Delegation of powers of Secretary to another officer.

31. The powers and duties of the Secretary under this Part may be delegated to an officer of the Institute with the consent of the Board.

PART VI

FINANCE

Government grant.

32. The Government may donate to the Institute annually a grant adequate for the purpose of carrying out the aims and objects of the Institute.

Institute entitled to receive grants from any source.

33. The Institute shall be entitled to receive grants from any source, whether in Sri Lanka or abroad, and to negotiate direct for such grants with any individual, institution or body of persons whether incorporate or not for the purpose of carrying out its aims and objects.

(b) all sums of money received by the Institute in the exercise, discharge and performance of its powers, functions and duties ; and

(c) any gifts or donations of money :

Provided, however, that any income derived from grants made for specific purposes or from endowments for specific objects, shall be separately accounted for in the accounts of the Institute and no payment shall be made from such income for the general purposes of the Institute or for any purposes or objects other than those for which such grants or endowments were respectively made :

Provided also that funds voted by Parliament specifically for research may be put into a separate " Research Fund ".

(3) There shall be paid out of the Fund of the Institute all sums of money required to defray any expenditure incurred by the Institute in the exercise, discharge and performance of its powers, functions and duties and all such sums of money required to be paid out of such Fund by or under this Act.

35. (1) The Institute shall be exempt from the payment of any rates imposed by any local authority.

Exemption
from rates
and taxes.

(2) The Minister may, in consultation with the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance, exempt the Institute from the payment of any customs duty on any goods imported by the Institute if the import of such goods is considered to be conducive for the advancement of the aims and objects of the Institute.

(3) All personal goods up to such value as may be determined by the Minister in consultation with the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance and all professional equipment, books and other scientific equipment imported by a Professor, Member or Fellow of the Institute, not being a citizen of Sri Lanka shall be exempt from the payment of customs duty.

(4) The provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law.

36. (1) The Board shall cause proper books of accounts to be kept of the income and expenditure, assets and liabilities and all other transactions of the Institute.

Accounts of the Institute.

(2) The Board shall cause its books to be balanced as on the thirty-first day of December in each year and shall before the thirty-first day of March next, cause to be prepared an income and expenditure account and a balance sheet containing a summary of the assets and liabilities of the Institute made up to the first-mentioned date.

(3) The income and expenditure account and the balance sheet shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board and by such other officers of the Institute as may be authorized by the Board in that behalf.

(4) The provisions of Article 154 of the Constitution relating to the audit of the accounts of public corporations shall apply to the audit of the accounts of the Institute.

PART VII
